STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, APRIL 27, 1906.

NO. 17.

IN MEMORIAM.

With a heart in sympathy with those who mourn, and ever willing to give a comforting word to those bowed in grief, I chronicle the death of Mary A. Doores, which occurred at her home in Crab Orchard April 17th, 1906.

Mrs. Doores was before her marriage Miss Mary A. Thomas, daughter of Capt. Thomas Thomas, of Bourbon county. She was born July 11, 1884. When seven years of age her father emigrated to Cass county, Mo., and settled near Pleasant Hill. She united with the Christian church when 15 years old and lived true to her profession during her life.

On May 22nd, 1891, she was united in marriage with Dr. Wm. Morris Doores, who, with three daughters, Mrs. Sallie Coulter, of Colorado, Mrs. Lurah Spiegel, of Shellyville, Ind., and Mrs. Leah Livingston, of Chicago, survive her. Dr. Doores moved with his family to Crab Orchard in January, 1879 and had lived continuously there since. In all these years Mrs. Doores had been a faithful wife, mother and friend, fastening herself so closely and tenderly in the affections of her family and friends that when the summons came for her to depart and all earthly ties to be severed, these hearts were crushed with grief; but she, recognizing the call as being from her Heavenly Father, felt that she still had a mission to perform in the few moments left her in this life and calling each member of the family and especially her grand-daughter, Miss Ha Holdain, whom she raised from early childhood and on whom her affections seemed to linger, separately to her bedside, plead with them to meet her in heaven, uttering with her last breath: "How sweet to be with Jesus." This assurance is sufficient to comfort aching hearts in the thought that she has gone on just a little while before, waiting to give you a sweet and joyous greeting where you may one and all be with Jesus.

Boston women have discovered the reason why children take to spectacles at a tender age. It is due, they say, to careless nursemaids, who sit about the public gardens or Commonwealth avenue and let their charges sleep with the sun shining full upon their faces. Sun baths are good as a hygienic measure, but optic nerves are sensitive and not to be trifled with, and youngsters who are unable to call for a sunshade have to seek shelter with their eyelids quivering under the glare. A crusade should be started against this practice of blinding the darlings, says one matron of the Hub. She is going to give morning talks with warnings to mothers that they must instruct nurses to screen little p'mess' eyes.

E. C. WALTON.

JUDGE JOHN W. HUGHES, of Mercer county, is a candidate in represent the Eighth Congressional district of Kentucky in Congress, to succeed Hon. G. O. Gilbert, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

The surviving wearers of the gray, their wives, their sons and their daughters and many of the sons of those who died in the defense of the Lost Cause, assembled in annual reunion in New Orleans. The first day's exercises were marked with many patriotic speeches of the kind that stirred the souls of the assembled thousands. Gen. S. D. Lee, commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, presided at the meeting.

Of the 105 counties in Kansas, 85 are without a pauper, 25 have no poorhouses and 37 have not a criminal case on the docket. Women in the State attribute this condition to the fact that they have had full municipal suffrage since 1887. If they can prove this, let us have general woman suffrage at once. If people can be good in Kansas on account of it, how many times good they would be in Kentucky.

There is a great difference between the resources at the command of the Confederate Veterans and the Grand Army of the Republic. The latter has all the money it needs, and more besides. According to Adjutant General Mickle the entire receipts of the Confederate Veterans were $6,508.08, barely enough to cover expenses shaved to the lowest figure.

"I HAVE always tried to be a faithful servant of my constituents, and think I have been. I was elected Senator and have done all I could for my country and my State, and what I want is an endorsement," said Senator McCrory in an interview. And from the present outlook he will get what he so greatly desires.

The first box of cherries from California sold at Philadelphia at auction for $2,440. They were sold singly and brought from 50 cents to $105 each. Over 520 commission merchants contended in the bidding. The money obtained was forwarded to the Red Cross Society for the San Francisco sufferers.

One result of the San Francisco disaster is surprising, that of weddings. A great number have resulted. Women driven out of their homes and left destitute have appealed to the men to whom they were engaged, and immediate marriages have been effected. So again does good come out of evil.

The salary of the county judge of Laurel is so small that the present incumbent has been compelled to go to farming to make a living. We are not in position to say whether or not Judge Pennington is paid according to his ability, but he is certainly a poorly paid official.

A DAUGHTER of the Revolution played at the meeting at Washington "for those who did not have such noble ancestors as we have." This is almost equal to the Pharisee, who thanked God that he wasn't like other men.

NEARLY 100 places of worship were destroyed in San Francisco. The fury of the catastrophe seems to have been directed as much at the good as at the evil.

Dr. J. G. Bosley, a prominent physician of Lancaster, was married to Miss Florien Bright, one of Richmond's most charming girls, and a leader in Madison society, says a dispatch.

The number of marriages in San Francisco has been materially increased by the earthquake. People who have to be earthquake into marriage ought not to be thrown into a divorce court by any less cataclysm. —Courier Journal.

Resolutions Of Respect.

Whereas God in His infinite wisdom has seen cause to call us from our beloved Sir Knight Win. H. Soard, on April 2, aged 32 years, therefore be it resolved

1st. That in his death Waynesburg Tent No. 55, Knights of the Maccabees, has lost a worthy member, the wife a true and faithful husband, his child a kind and loving father and the community a good citizen.

2nd. That we extend to the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy and commend them to the Supreme Commander of the universe, Who doeth all things well.

3rd. That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our minute book, a copy be sent to the bereaved family and a copy be sent to the INTERIOR JOURNAL, and the Casey County News for publication.

M. G. Reynolds, Taylor Wesley, W. R. Singleton, committee.

Miserable Conditions.

Of body and mind, always result from a torpid liver, which leads to bile poisons being absorbed into the blood, and poisoning all the nerves and tissues. This dreadful state, some of the symptoms of which are headache, bitter taste, nausea, lack of appetite, yellow complexion, constipation, etc., can be quickly cured by taking Dr. Caldwell's (laxative) Syrup Pepsi. It relieves the strain on your liver, relaxes the tightened bowels, purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, and makes it as clean as a whistle. The result is perfect health, and freedom from pain and discomfort. Try it. Sold by Penny's Drug Store, Stanford; C. W. Adams, Hustonville, at 50c and $1. Money back if it fails.

"How much do you take in per day?" asked the lady reformer.

"About $15," the saloon keeper replied.

"You should be ashamed of such a business!"

"Maybe so ma'am, but I can't force people to drink."

Grip Quickly Knocked Out.

"Some weeks ago during the severe winter weather both my wife and myself contracted severe colds which speedily developed into the worst kind of a grippe with all its miserable symptoms," says Mr. J. S. Eggleston of Maple Landling, Iowa. "Knees and joints aching, muscles sore, head stopped up, eyes and nose running, with alternate spells of chills and fever. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, taking the same with a double dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and by its liberal use soon completely knocked out the grippe." Sold by Dr. W. N. Craig, the popular druggist, Stanford.

Nat Goodwin, in describing an unsuccessful play, said:

"Why, one night during this company's Western tour, the box-office man was aroused from a nap in the middle of the first act by an odd sound.

"He yawned and looked out of the box, and there before him stood a little boy, weeping bitterly.

"'What is the matter, my little man?' he asked.

"The boy, holding up a check, said:

"I want my money back."

"Why do you want your money back?" asked the box-office man in surprise.

"Because," sobbed the boy, "I'm afraid to sit up in the gallery all alone." —Philadelphia Bulletin.

No Quarter.

The evils which always follow after indigestion, biliousness, or constipation will give no quarter. Better fight them to a finish with Dr. Caldwell's (laxative) Syrup Pepsi. It is a weapon against these dangerous diseases, which will give you quick relief and permanent cure. Sold by Penny's Drug Store, Stanford; C. W. Adams, Hustonville, at 50c and $1. Money back if it fails.
